DISCOVER BERKS COUNTY'S HIDDEN BREWERY HISTORY WITH A CRAFT BEER TASTING

Each participant will receive a souvenir mug, two 5 oz. drink tickets for each the four breweries visited along with historic brew presentations and a lunch with a beef, chicken or pork handheld sandwich.

Inspired by German brewing tradition and American innovation, Golden Avalanche (our first stop) beer is made only with the finest malt and hops. Their draft selections are all formulated and handcrafted to produce the highest quality drinkable beers. Golden Avalanche Brewing Company has combined a German engineered brewhouse with the best available local raw materials, and the skill of experienced brewers.

Farm to Table. Farm to Pint. Saucony Creek Brewing Company is destined to break the mold with authentic, small beer batch creations along with locally sourced farm ingredients which makes this place a true gastropub experience. Saucony Creek Brewing Company brews on a 15 barrel brewhouse system into 30 & 45 barrel fermentation tanks with an annual capacity of 6,000 barrels. Our lunch of handheld sandwiches will be a true farm to table experience!

Schaylor Brewing Company set up shop just this year, certainly one of the youngest breweries in Berks County. All their brewing equipment is in view, and since the owners (all 20-something graduates of Conrad Weiser High School) are big fans of India pale ales, many of their beers are hoppy. Their eight taps feature several year round beers, IPAs, stoudts, Belgians and many one-time batches, with plenty of room for expansion in this one time Daewoo dealership.

Oakbrook Brewing is a premier brewery located in the beautifully restored 1905 Oakbrook Fire Station. The serving tanks and bar are located in the former horse stables of the building and the pub is situated in the attached engine house within site of the brewery. A number of photographs and exhibits on the walls preserve the history of the firefighters who served the community. Oakbrook typically has 12 to 14 of its own beer on tap as well as guests taps featuring beers from other Pennsylvania breweries.
